15963. Adulteration and misbranding of cottonseed meal. U. S. v. 250 Sacks of Cottonseed Meal. Decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 22680. I. S. No. 22202-v. S. No. 719.)

On or about April 2, 1928, the United States attorney for the District of Rhode Island, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 250 sacks of cottonseed meal, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Arnold Mills Station, R. I., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Planters Oil Co., from Albany, Ga., on or about October 12, 1927, and transported from the State of Georgia into the State of Rhode Island, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Choice-Prime Dixie Brand Cotton Seed Meal 100 Pounds Net Guaranteed Analysis Min. Protein 41.12% * * * Min. Crude Fiber 10.00% Made from Pressed Cottonseed Guaranteed by Humphreys-Godwin Co., Memphis, Tenn."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that a substance deficient in protein and containing excessive crude fiber and hair had been mixed and packed with and substituted in part for the said article.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statements, "Guaranteed Analysis Min. Protein 41.12% Min. Crude Fiber 10.00% Made from Pressed Cottonseed" and "Choice," borne on the label, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, and for the further reason that the article was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On April 10, 1928, claimant having appeared and admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant or to N. W. Whipple, jr., Arnold Mills, R. I., as agent for claimant, upon payment of all costs and the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,000, conditioned in part that it be reconditioned and relabeled under the direction and supervision of this department.
